BAG LIMITS etc.

All bag limits listed in the current VICTORIAN RECREATIONAL FISHING GUIDE must be observed and will be enforced with the following additions. Maximum bag of flathead or garfish – 20 (Club Rule)

- Heaviest bag can include only:-
WHITING, SNAPPER, SQUID, GARFISH & FLATHEAD
- Undersize or illegal fish will lead to disqualification.
- The weigh master's decision will be final in all matters associated with the weighing of fish for the competition.
- Fish weighed in for the heaviest of an individual species may be included in the total bag but only if permitted within the specified total bag list. It is the angler's responsibility to present the fish for weighing at the same time as the total bag.
- Any individual fish listed in the marine and estuarine section of the current VICTORIAN RECREATIONAL FISHING GUIDE may be weighed in the "Heaviest Other Species" with the following exclusions:
 - Only one fish of a species may be weighed in any of the heaviest individual fish categories.
- All fish must be caught by the individual angler weighing in the fish.

THE EVENT

- The organisers are empowered to cancel or shorten the competition in the event of unsuitable weather.
A notice will be posted in the club yard prior to the start regarding the status of the competition.
Changes to the status due to weather etc. will be given using a call to competitors on Marine Channel 88 with the information given on Channel 72.
- Fish caught prior to a delayed start will be ineligible.
If fishing is cancelled the sausage sizzle will be held and the competition rescheduled to the following week, or as advised, until the weather is suitable.
- All entry monies will be held as entry for the rescheduled competition, (or the following year if the entrant notifies an inability to fish the rescheduled competition on the day of cancellation).
- Members of the club may invite friends to fish from their boat and also nominate one (1) additional boat.
- Entrants engaging in conduct which, in the opinion of the organisers, is in breach of the spirit of the competition may be disqualified or penalised.
- It is the responsibility of the entrants to acquaint themselves with these rules, as they will be strictly enforced, if you don't know ASK!
- Competitors engage in this competition entirely at their own risk and accept that they are responsible for their own boat in the prevailing conditions.
